

On Your Toes Dance Academy & Performing Arts, Inc.
Enrollment & Recital Agreement

1. Payments accepted are cash or debit/credit card We do not accept checks. When paying at the school, you must obtain a receipt at all times, as this will be the only verification of payment for your records and ours.
2. Lower School refers to all students enrolled in Teeny Toes, Kinderdance, Intro to Dance / Combo classes. Upper school refers to the more serious older students that opt to train in a more professional manner.
3. All tuition, recital, rehearsal, costume and dancewear payments are non-refundable and must be prepaid. All tuition must be pre-paid prior to the student attending any classes – no exceptions.
4. While your child is enrolled at the school, you are responsible for the tuition each and every session whether your child attends classes or not (even in the Summer.) It is the parent's responsibility to bring their child to class consistently and in the school's assigned attire.
5. A student may only be un-enrolled prior to the beginning of a session and only via email. If we do not receive an email, you are still financially responsible for every monthly session while your child is enrolled.
6. Tuition is a yearly fee paid for in either six or twelve installments regardless of Summer attendance.
7. Past due accounts will be transferred to our collections company and be assessed a 40% additional recovery fee for collection expenses.
8. All students at OYT are required to participate in the school's yearly recital. A recital deposit in the amount of 50.00 is due in May or during registration if registering after May. This deposit is non-refundable and confirms your child's participation in the recital.
9. The recital cost starts at 225.00 depending on how many dances your child is in. Lower School students are usually in one dance. Unlike most dance schools, our fee includes everything: your child's costume(s), 5 tickets to the show and the DVD professionally taken.
10. All communication must be via email at oyparentinfo@yahoo.com
